

Robin Burt Davis

1. Ginny Davis (wife - yes, I have one).

Wm Burt, great, great grandfather was master plasterer for St. George Temple, Tabernacle, and worked on Manti Temple. His home is at 186 So. 200 East, St. George.

Great, great grandfather, Alma Millet built huge rock home close to entrance to Zions. Located on private property it is one mile from highway and accessible only to family members on Memorial Day.

Erastus Snow is wife's great, great grandfather.

Born and formative years in Mesa, Arizona; both wife and I grew up in Salt Lake City; she attended West High School, I, Granite.

I taught high school Spanish in Pomona, California, at BYU as graduate assistant; taught for CES 7 years; business owner/retired - (Building Maintenance); presently live in Fairview, Utah and have small development on 150 acres - springcanyonranchestates.com. We plan to spend summers there at Fairview home where we also have large log home on the old homestead and let families and church groups use and others to rent.

Served mission to Argentina South; wife and I served a mission in San Pedro Sula, Honduras/Belise - 2002-2004; just completed 14 month Spanish speaking mission in Sanpete County; we continue to be involved with the hispanics.

Six children, 18 grandchildren.

Interests: guitar, singing, swimming, photography; make custom stainless-steel belt buckles and key tags; love out-of-doors; gardening, large flower pots and baskets. Love reading history, biographies.