

Melvin Duehlmeier:

Born in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Lived there for most of my life (52years.)

Attended schools in Salt Lake City, West High School and University of Utah.

Worked for Salt Lake County Surveyors Office 30 years. While there was party chief of a four-man surveyor crew for 10 years, went back to University of Utah and enrolled in a special Highway Engineering course. Received a Land Surveyors license, and became the Salt Lake County Surveyor's office manager for 18 years. The last 2 years as Chief Deputy Salt Lake County Surveyor.

Retired 10 years ago and moved to Logandale, Nevada, then 2 years ago moved to St George.

Married to wife Jan Hammond for 40 years this July.

We have three sons and four grandchildren.

My mother and father migrated to the U.S.A. from Germany in the late 1920's but my sons are direct decedents of early pioneers though my wife's family which includes; Mary Jane Dillworth, Belnap family and Elizabeth Jackson Kingford.

Editor's Note: Mel is currently serving as our Scholarship Committee Chairman and has recently completed evaluating the Scholarship Applicants, and the 5th Grade Essay Contest and selecting our winners for this year. Scholarship winners will be presented at our April 18th Dinner Meeting. Please plan to join us.
