

HACKWORTH, R. Allen Biography

I was born in American Fork, Utah, on the 27th of December 1940, and grew up in St. Anthony, Idaho.

I married Loni Gee from Pocatello, Idaho.

I have a Masters Degree in Engineering & Journalism, and worked in the printing field in my younger days.

Poor eyesight caused me to be discharged from the Navy as a young man.

Spent most of my professional life teaching at Rick College in Rexburg, Idaho, and BYU in Provo, Utah.

Have been active in the LDS Church, filling many callings, including Bishoprics, quorum Presidencies, Etc.

I have long lines of Pioneer ancestry, and have served part-time mission in St. George Regional Family History Training Center. Have also visited Israel & Russia.